NOTE FOR: ADCI

SUBJECT: Today's State Lunch: Mexico's Financial Situation

STAT The attached memo from [redacted] suggesting the need for some sort of interagency action to deal with Mexico's problems, was included for your 27 February meeting with John Poindexter. There is no indication in your STAT MFR that there was time to address this subject (the DCI didn't attend and you both STAT were going to [redacted] that evening.

STAT I am providing it to you now should you want to discuss it with Whitehead today. [redacted] advises it is still an open issue. (It had been a subject for your 8 February State meeting that was cancelled.)

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Harold P. Ford
Vice Chairman, National Intelligence Council

25X1

FROM:
Acting National Intelligence Officer for Economics

SUBJECT: Implications of Mexico's Financial Problems

1. I believe a decision to deal with Mexico's financial problems is properly a national security issue and should be discussed before the full Cabinet at an early NSC meeting.
